DAMAGE MAY BE SLIGHT

Two Steamers on Way Today to Assistance of 95 Passengers on Board

London, Nov. 13.—(By the Associated Press)—The steamer Oscar Y which sailed from New York, November 2, for Christiana and Copenhagen went aground Sunday north of the Oksø entrance to Christiana, according to an exchange telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

Two steamers have gone to the assistance of 95 passengers still aboard today. It is believed that the ship was not seriously damaged.

CHRISTIANS FLEEING
FROM ASIA MINOREntire Population of Large Centers in Panicky Flight Toward the Seacoast.

Constantinople, Nov. 13.—(By the Associated Press)—The entire Christian population of Siwas, Angora, Cesarea, Konia and other large centers in Asia Minor are in panicky flight towards the shores of the Mediterranean and Black seas.

Samsun, in the Vilyet of Trebizond, on the Black sea, has 10,000 of its own refugees and 40,000 others are reported headed for that port in quest of ships to take them out of the country. Along every road and in every mountain pass are long columns of men, women and children loading long sleepy oxen pulling wagon loads of their goods.

The difficulties and hardships of this wholesale evacuation have been increased by wet weather, which is bringing sickness or death to thousands. James Crutcher of Tusculum, Ala., of the American Near East relief, notified Constantinople by courier today that the waterfront at Samsun was crowded with terrorized refugees. Mr. Crutcher states that the available ships will only embark 2000 persons. He believes that not more than one-third of the refugees will be able to leave the country with in the period set by the Turks. He therefore is making efforts to induce the Angora government to extend the time limit.

BLODGETT-WALKER
Well-Known Local Young Couple
Married Saturday Forenoon.

A simple home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker Saturday forenoon at 11 o'clock, when their daughter, Ruth Winifred, became the bride of Harlan Edgar Blodgett. Miss Ina B. Walker of Gardner, Mass., sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Clarence Walker was the best man. Miss Isabel MacLaren of Gardner played the wedding march. Rev. John Leonard Cole of the Methodist Episcopal church performed the ceremony. Only the immediate relatives of the couple were present including Miss Lena Blodgett of Boston, a sister of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Blodgett is president of the Epworth League and secretary of the Methodist church school and both of the young people are popular in the town. Many good friends wish them felicity and highest prosperity throughout their lives. They are taking a fortnight's wedding tour via automobile through New England.

QUAKE DEAD
WILL NUMBER 1000
LOSSES, MILLIONSRelief Forces Aiding Thousands without Shelter

MANY SHIPS DESTROYED

Tremendous Tidal Wave Followed
Disturbance on 1400
Miles of Coast

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 13.—(By the Associated Press)—The relief forces to aid the thousands made homeless by earthquakes throughout Chile Saturday morning and flooding waves which followed shocks were being mobilized today.

The death toll probably will be at least one thousand, it is estimated and the property loss will run into millions, as several towns were almost entirely wiped out and heavy damage to buildings and communication lines and particularly to ships along the fourteen hundred miles of coast affected by huge waves resulting from violent upheavals of nature. Five hundred are reported killed at Valparaiso and in districts surrounding that city. At Coquimbo at least one hundred are known to be dead. All along the coast little ships and big ones were swept on shore, pounded on the rocks, or left high and dry.

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 13.—Chile's earthquake catastrophe, with partial re-establishment of communications, is revealed in even greater magnitude than first reports indicated. It is estimated that at least 1000 are dead, and many thousands are in distress, needing food and shelter.

In addition to heavy casualties of dead and injured at Copiapo and Coquimbo, it is reported that 500 were killed at Valparaiso and the surrounding district. Valparaiso was virtually destroyed and the survivors are in critical condition. It seems certain that there have been casualties in other towns and villages around Copiapo, to the south, concerning which no news is yet available.

Already 24 bodies have been recovered at Coquimbo, where it is known there are 100 or more dead. At Chanaal a number were killed by falling houses. It was earthquake and tidal wave combined that accounted for the vast destruction in the provinces of Antofagasta, Atacama and Coquimbo. The movement of the ocean is described as phenomenal. It gave evidence of a terrific disturbance in the bed of the Pacific itself. There must have been such a tearing at the bottom of the sea that tremendous quantities of water were sucked through, causing a tremendous recession of the waters along the Chilean coast. Several times the ocean swept outward and came back in the shape of a great wave, flooding the seaports and in some instances sweeping away the waterfront. The violent effects of the tidal waves were felt from Antofagasta on the north to Valdivia on the south, covering about 16 degrees of latitude, or more than 1200 miles.

All types of craft lying in the various harbors were swept on shore, wrecked or left high and dry, and at scores of small ports, wharves and quays were destroyed. Several naval vessels in the harbor at Talcahuano, about 300 miles south of Valparaiso, when they felt the force of the waters, slipped their cables and proceeded out to the open sea. President Alessandri has ordered the various government departments to take all measures possible for the relief of the sufferers in the stricken districts, those most sorely afflicted lying between Coquimbo and Copiapo. The navy department had sent ships along the coast to aid in the work.

SOUTH END FARMERS
SEEK MILK OUTLETSurplus in This Vicinity May Be Diverted to the Manchester Creamery.

A series of Farm Bureau community meetings is to be held this week by County Agent W. T. Teachout at which three reels of moving pictures will be shown and S. G. Judd, dairy specialist of the U. V. M., will speak. Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at Cole Hall, South Shaftsbury, should be the meeting of most interest to Bennington farmers as the plan for taking the surplus milk of this section to the Manchester creamery will then be discussed. There is pressing need in this vicinity for an outlet for the extra milk and if a connection could be established with the new creamery it would not only relieve the flood of milk in Bennington but be an inducement to better breeding. The movies to be shown are on "Poultry Culling," "Great Dairy Sires and their Daughters" and the "National Forests of Colorado." Monday night the meeting will be held in the new creamery at Manchester. Tuesday night at Community hall, Pownal; Thursday night, Readsboro, Town Hall and Friday night, at Rupert Grange hall.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Harriet Hosford Daley, Who Died Nov. 9th.

Mrs. Harriet Hosford Daley, widow of the late Dr. Emmett Burr Daley, passed into eternal rest at her home in New Rochelle, N. Y., Thursday evening, Nov. 9, 1922, aged 70 years. Mrs. Daley was born in Hydeville, Vt., October 9, 1852, the youngest child of Henry and Persis Clarissa (Hopson) Hosford. Her education was completed at Villa Maria, Montreal, and at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, New York city. She was a member of the Manhattanville Alumnae Association of the latter institution of learning.

After a successful career in the New York public schools and in church and concert singing, she was married to Dr. Emmett Burr Daley at Whitehall, N. Y., August 16, 1881. During the following year the young couple located in Bennington, which was to be their home for thirty-five years. After Dr. Daley's death in October, 1917, Mrs. Daley made her home with her sons in New York. She is survived by one daughter, seven sons and one granddaughter.

Many of Mrs. Daley's friends will recall her superb contralto voice. She was for many years a soloist at St. Francis de Sales church, and was a favorite with Bennington concert audiences. Her host of friends in Bennington and New York will know that mere words are feeble to describe a nature so richly and variously endowed. Her intense love of the beautiful in nature and in art, her joy of life, her fortitude and unbreakable spirit through the years of her invalidism, her absolute devotion to duty and to her God, her unfailing charity, kindness and courtesy to all—these attributes will ever keep her memory fresh in the hearts of her family and friends—an absolutely devoted wife and mother, a loving friend, a Christian Catholic woman, gone to God. May she rest in peace.

The funeral was held from St. Francis de Sales church this morning at 9 o'clock. Six of her sons—John, Hubert, Clarence, Charles, George and Augustine, acted as bearers. In interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

FINDS TWO BROTHERS
MURDERED WITH AXEShocking Discovery of Hardwick Man
Visiting Relatives in New Hampshire.

Orford, N. H., Nov. 13.—The bodies of John and Charles Davis, brothers living together in a small house on the outskirts of this town, were found with the heads smashed by blows from an axe when a third brother, Prescott Davis of Hardwick, Vt., and his wife arrived for a short visit early last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Davis reaching the house about 5 o'clock and on finding the door locked, gained entrance by use of a key which the brothers had previously furnished them. In the dusk they stumbled on the body of Charles, lying in the kitchen near the woodbox. They immediately left the house and reported their discovery to Deputy Sheriff Walter H. French, who, with Selectmen Willard R. Harris and Olin N. Renfrew and W. R. Conant, a newspaperman, conducted an investigation. The officials found the body of John Davis in a toilet in the woodshed.

The heads of the brothers had been crushed with an axe which was found bloodstained in the woodshed near John's body.

The dead brothers, who were employed as woodsmen, were known to have gone to Bradford, Vt., on Tuesday last. Since that time they had not been seen by neighbors. John Davis was a veteran of the Civil war, about 75 years old.

According to the authorities and the third brother, both men were accustomed to carry considerable money in their clothing. They were also said to trade to some extent in watches and guns. No trace of several watches, believed to have been kept in the house, was found by the officials in their investigation today. The investigations found parts of a broken lamp chimney near the body of Charles, the lamp being found in the woodshed where the other body was located. The only door through which access to the house could be gained was found locked on the outside with a padlock when Mr. and Mrs. Prescott Davis arrived, they said.

John Davis was married years ago but had no children. No relatives other than the third brother are known to be living.

CROWDED AUDITORIUM
GREETED "CAPPY RICKS"James Houston's Company Presents Enjoyable Entertainment in Chautauqua Course.

Probably the largest Chautauqua audience Bennington has yet seen, greeted James Houston's company in "Cappy Ricks" Friday evening at High School hall. The room was crowded to its capacity and the audience was delighted with the presentation, every member of the cast being an artist, and at his best. There was also a good audience in the afternoon to hear Stephani Schutze, the "Modern Minstrel" in his popular story telling. This was a most unique entertainment, of educational value as well as very entertaining. Mr. Schutze explained that story telling was the oldest popular form of entertainment as well as being practiced in all nations and by all tribes, ancient and modern.

Very dramatically he told the stories of David, Thor, Tony Bear and Black Kitty which were as enthusiastically applauded by the adults as well as by the children present. These entertainments together with the splendid concert given the week before by Geoffrey O'Hara, the celebrated Canadian composer and tenor singer, were of such superior merit as to assure the future success of Winter Chautauqua in Bennington, and a liberal patronage the balance of the present course.

THIS IS CANCER WEEK

Progress of Efforts to Eradicate Dread Disease.

The week of November 11 to 18 has been designated as Cancer Week by the American Society for the Control of Cancer.

It has seemed fit, therefore, that the Medical Society of Bennington County should publish at this time, the following facts, which should be known by all persons for their own protection. Read the following facts. Talk about them with your family physician. If you have anything that you suspect might be cancer visit the Free Cancer Clinic at the Putnam Memorial hospital of Bennington, Vt. on Friday, Nov. 17 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The danger is real. During the Great War the United States lost about 80,000 soldiers. In the same time, 180,000 people died of cancer in this country. More people over forty years old die of cancer than of pneumonia, typhoid fever or tuberculosis. Among people over forty, one woman in eight and one man in fourteen dies of cancer. Cancer is, therefore, a menace to everyone, to your family and to yourself.

What is cancer? Cancer is always in the beginning a local disease. It is not a constitutional or blood disease. There is no taint of disgrace about cancer and it is not hereditary. Cancer is not a communicable disease. It cannot be caught from one who has it.

MRS. GEORGE HUMMER

Respected Resident Passed Away This Morning.

Mrs. George Hummer, for many years a resident of the west part of the town, died at her home there this morning. Mrs. Hummer's health had been failing for some months but her condition was not considered serious. Mr. and Mrs. Hummer came to Bennington as young immigrants over thirty years ago. After working around for a short period they bought the farm which they have since occupied. It wasn't much of a farm in the opinion of the neighbors and the man who sold it but Mr. and Mrs. Hummer in the past 25 years have shown what thrift and industry will do on a small Vermont farm.

They devoted themselves to celery and other garden crops, smaller fruits, etc., and for years Mrs. Hummer worked just as hard as her husband and is just as much entitled to credit for the success made by the family as is her husband.

Morning after morning during the marketing season for years she has been on Main street with crops from the farm at daylight even when daylight came exceedingly early. Often she has been waiting for the stores to open and her cheerful smile and kindly heart made everyone her friend. She was greatly shocked and grieved by the tragic death of her son a few months ago and for the past year has kept closely at home. In spite of her work out-of-doors and marketing she was a good housekeeper and a famous cook, generous in word and deed and highly esteemed by all who knew her.

BENNINGTON IS BETTER

General Conditions Have Improved
in Twenty Years

As part of the sermon last evening at the Methodist Church, the minister reported that in the opinion of seven well known citizens of Bennington who had been competent observers of community for over twenty years, men who represented every shade of religious and political creed, there was a majority in favor of the proposition that Bennington was better, as well as "greater" than it was two decades ago. Three men pronounced "general level of character" no worse; and four, "decidedly improved."

Mr. Cole began his sermon "Greater Men for Greater Bennington" with a word of high praise for those men of the town who had caught the high vision of a "greater Bennington" and were coupling some hard work with their vision, to make it materialize. Such vision and vigor, as expressed in the Board of Trade reorganization and a day of closer co-operation and greater achievement for the town. The slogan, understanding "greater" to include "better," "spiritual," ought to abide and to unite all well-wishers of Bennington long after the new Board of Trade had become a fixed and essential part of the civic life.

EDITOR KEMAL SLAIN

Anti Nationalist Torn to Pieces by Constantinople Mob.

Constantinople, Nov. 7.—(Delayed in transmission).—All Kemal, editor of the anti-nationalist newspaper Sabah, who was arrested at Ismid on the charge of subversive actions, was killed by a mob after having been officially condemned to death. He was taken before Gen. Nur Eddin Pasha, military governor of Smyrna, now on a tour of inspection of the nationalist troops at Ismid, who pronounced the death sentence dramatically:—"In the name of Islam, in the name of the Turkish nation, I condemn you to death as a traitor to the country."

All Kemal remained passive, uttering no word of protest; his hands tied, he was led to a scaffold. Before he reached the gibbet, however, an angry mob of women pounced on him, attacking him with knives, stones, clubs tearing at his clothing and slashing his body and head with cutlasses. After a few minutes of excruciating torture the victim expired. His body was dragged through the streets by the infuriated mob and exposed to public gaze on the scaffold for several hours.

The editor's death has caused profound resentment and emotion in Constantinople, where he was known as one of Turkey's most enlightened and most impartial citizens.

IRA SOLDIERS HONORED

Monument to Veterans of All Wars Dedicated.

Rutland, Nov. 13.—A monument to the veterans of the Civil, Spanish-American and World wars was dedicated at Ira Saturday afternoon, 200 persons being present at the outdoor exercises.

Major Leonard F. Wing of this city, who is a native of Ira, and a legion member, was the principal speaker. The Civil War veterans were represented and Col. D. L. Morgan, a Grand Army man, was one of the speakers.

Ira sent 41 men to the Civil war five to the conflict of 1898 and nine to the World war. The monument cost $550, the money being raised by subscription as the outcome of a vote at town meeting in 1921. A bronze tablet, two by four feet, is mounted on a white marble base.

The earliest attempt at sewing by machinery of which there is an authentic record was in 1759, in which year a machine was patented in England by C. F. Weisenthal.

NEIGHBOR DENIES
MRS. GIBSON WAS
MURDER WITNESSSigns Affidavit that Pig Farmer Was not at Phillips Farm

OFFICIAL HAS STATEMENT

Declares Teller of Weird Tale
Visiting Near Home on Night of Crime

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 13.—An affidavit refuting the story of Mrs. Jane Gibson, farmer, of what she saw on the Phillips farm on the night of September 14 last, when the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills were murdered, has been obtained from a neighbor of Mrs. Gibson and given to the authorities, counsel for the rector's widow announced tonight.

The affidavit which was obtained by Timothy Pfeiffer, Mrs. Hall's attorney, is signed by Mrs. Nellie L. Russell, whose home is a short distance from that of the self-styled "eye witness" of the Hall-Mills murder. It sets forth that on the night of September 14, during the time that Mrs. Gibson said in her statement to the authorities that she was near the scene of the shooting she was at the home of Mrs. Russell.

Mr. Pfeiffer said that the affidavit had been obtained after Mrs. Russell had written to Mrs. Hall telling her that Mrs. Gibson was not on the farm when she had said she was.

ONLY WOMAN MEMBER
PEEVED OVER DEFEATMiss Alice Robertson Declares She Has Been Insulted By Citizens of Home Town.

Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 13.—Miss Alice Robertson, the only woman in Congress, who was defeated for reelection last week by the man she unseated in the Republican landslide of 1920, declared that she had "been insulted by the citizenship of the city" for which I long have fought and made sacrifices, and that when she left Congress next March she would come back home to Muskogee just to get her summer clothes.

Miss Robertson said she felt she had not been treated fairly by the citizens of her home town, who rolled up a heavy majority against her Tuesday.

"It was purely a business proposition of sending me back to Congress," she said. "I didn't want to run two years ago and it was only after much urging that I consented, but now I'm through."

"For thirty-seven years I've lived in Muskogee and was born within ten miles of the city, and I have always fought for the good of Muskogee just as I did while I was in Congress. If I had it to do over again, I'd do the same things I have done in Congress and vote just exactly as I did. I owe Muskogee nothing."

Sawokla Farm, bordering the city, which Miss Robertson has owned since 1908, probably will be placed on the market soon as the last bit of property listed in her name here, she said.

"Miss Alice" as she is known to Muskogee, said she had nothing to come back to here. She said she hadn't a penny of income here.

It was reported that she has a place waiting for her in the Woman's Bureau of the Department of Labor in Washington.

"Would you take it if it were offered to you?" she was asked.

"I've got to do something, haven't I, and I haven't a cent of income after I leave Congress," she answered.

SUSPECTED FIREBUG
TAKES HIS OWN LIFEFred Morrison of New Haven Mills,
Suspected of Burning Barns,
Drinks Carbolic Acid.

Bristol, Nov. 13.—Fred Morrison, 50, of New Haven Mills took his own life by drinking carbolic acid late Friday night, his lifeless body being discovered early Saturday morning in bed by his wife when she went to call him.

Morrison, who was despondent and embittered against the world because of fancied grievances and somewhat heavily in debt, according to his family left note for his three sons, all at home, which read as follows: "It is up to you boys to take good care of your mother and sister, Good Bye."

Fred Morrison, Friday night the barns on the premises of William Kempton some distance from the Morrison home, caught fire and burned down, causing a loss of $1540. Later the barn of William Grover in another section was found on fire but prompt measures saved it.

It is believed by the authorities that Morrison set both fires as he had recently been discharged by Kempton and he had also been fined for cruelty to animals. His arrest having been caused by Grover.

Washington, Nov. 13.—(By the Associated Press)—Japanese are not eligible for naturalization in the United States, it was held today by the Supreme Court.

The question largely hinged upon whether the section of revised statute restricting naturalization to "free white persons" and those of African descent remained in force.

FINED $100 AND COSTS
Shaftsbury Hunters Got a Deer a Trifle Too Soon.

Three well known citizens of South Shaftsbury were in municipal court this morning to explain why they had a deer in camp before daylight on the morning of the first day of the open season.

From evidence obtained by Game Warden H. C. Melendy it appeared that while they were preparing camp the Saturday night before the season opened a buck came proudest and got killed. There was some question as to who was chiefly at fault.

Mr. Melendy allowed that it wasn't the deer that was responsible though the buck might have been a little careless. It is claimed by those who don't know for sure that lots were drawn to settle the matter and a fine assessed by Judge Meagher of $100 and costs was paid.

TANLAC PUT HIM
ON FEET SAYS
M'NAUGHTON

"Last Fall at the Manchester railroad station I lost my balance and fell under a train, which came near costing me my life. I was badly crushed and hurt all over my back and received a fearful shock. I had had a bad case of rheumatism for years and was so crippled up in my legs and feet I could hardly walk. My legs would just give out under me."

"After this accident my kidneys got all out of fix and brought on awful backache. I got to be one of the most nervous persons alive and between my nervousness and rheumatic pains I could not sleep. I got to be as weak as a baby, would have a fainting spell every once in a while and was so undone that I was unfit for anything."

Well, as I could see no improvement under the treatment I was taking I bought some Tanlac, also Tanlac Vegetable Pills and Rheumatism Treatment, and here I am, as you see me, hard at work and feeling fine. Tanlac has won my everlasting gratitude and praise.

The above statement was made recently by John McNaughton, well-known resident of Manchester, Vt. Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Advertisement.
